NO RELIEF FROM SLEET AND SNOW STORM IN SIGHT

Weather Bureau Forecasts More Snow Today and Tonight

GREAT DAMAGE CAUSED

Huge Waves Sweep Over Summer Resorts—New York Faces Fuel Famine

Washington, Feb. 5. — Relief for the Middle and North Atlantic states from the sleet and snow storm, raging since Wednesday, was not in sight tonight.

More snow tomorrow was forecast by the weather bureau for the entire Atlantic seaboard north of Virginia. The snow probably will continue tomorrow night, and as for the weather beyond that time, forecasters would make no predictions in view of the unusual nature and extraordinary magnitude of the storm. High winds may be expected all along the seaboard tomorrow.

Huge Waves Sweep Atlantic Coast.

New York, Feb. 5. — Huge waves rolled up by a 50-mile gale were still sweeping the North Atlantic coast tonight, while cities and towns along the shore were trying with indifferent success to dig themselves out of the deepest snow drifts in years. Damage done by the sea to resorts and summer homes along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts was estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Shipping remained at anchor or moved with the utmost caution. In the land-locked waterways around New York, huge ice floes menaced navigation. The steamer Maine, of the New England Steamship company, was driven ashore on the north end of Long Island. The ship, which carried five passengers and a crew of 70, was reported in no immediate danger and a tug has been sent to her relief.

Cold, snow, ice and high seas have made it almost impossible to transport coal from the tide water reservoir at Perth Amboy to New York, and the city faces a fuel famine which will force all its transportation lines to suspend operation unless the weather moderates quickly.

Record Tide in New York.

While mountainous seas were battering the coast, the highest tide ever recorded in New York harbor caused floods along the Hudson and Harlem rivers. Flooded ferry houses on the New York and New Jersey sides of the Hudson hampered still further transportation lines already struggling with deep snow. Water from the Erie terminal dripped into the Hudson tubes at Jersey City.

At the headquarters of the regional director of railroads, freight conditions resulting from the storm were characterized as "difficult but not dangerous."

Two score big snow plows were at work today on the New York Central between New York and Buffalo. Snow has drifted from 15 to 18 feet deep in some of the big cuts. Constantly freezing switches are being thawed out by burning oil. Through trains from all directions were running hours late.

Traffic in the snow-filled streets in New York dwindled to 15 per cent of normal.

The street cleaning department asked an emergency appropriation of $150,000 to clean the streets. An urgent appeal was made for workers and it was said 14,000 would be hired if they could be found, but only 3,000 were available. Lacking men to form shoveling gangs, 150 motor plows are being used to clear the main arteries of travel. The health department has stamped the accumulation of snow as a menace in the influenza epidemic.

May Curtail Transportation Service.

Immediate curtailment of subway and elevated service undoubtedly will be necessary to relieve the worst coal shortage the city ever has faced. Lewis Nixon, public service commissioner, declared today after a conference with representatives of transportation and public utilities companies. Municipal transportation lines, he explained, have not more than two days' supplies in their bunkers and there is little prospect of receiving an additional supply immediately.

Harbor traffic is so demoralized by storm conditions, he said, that there is slight hope of receiving large amounts of coal by water.

Commissioner Nixon sent telegrams tonight to President Wilson, Senators Woodworth and Calder, and Max Baer, director of public service of the railroad administration, urging them to prevent seizure by the railroad administration of coal intended for New York's public utilities. He asked that effort be exerted to rush fuel to New York here, as the situation was "grave."

Hedley Gives Assurance.

At the same time, Frank Hedley, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, stated the public would not be unduly apprehensive of the suspension of operations of the subway and elevated lines at New York, and the company continues to receive the co-operation it

ATTACKS MINE UNION'S BLACK, ROTTEN RECORD

Operators' Spokesman at Strike Settlement Hearing Denounces "Wild Cat" Strikes

Washington, Feb. 5. — The case of the bituminous coal industry of the five states comprising the southwestern field was laid before the coal strike settlement commission today by representatives of the operators and of the United Mine Workers' district involved.

As spokesman for all operators in the field, H. N. Taylor, president of the National Coal association, launched an attack on what he described as the "black and rotten record" of union leadership in the southwestern mines that precipitated a controversy between himself and John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America.

Union heads have inflicted "economic loss and even poverty upon the willing workers in the mines" by calling "useless strikes" mostly of a "wildcat variety," Mr. Taylor declared. There were 364 strikes in the Kansas district alone in 1918, which cost the miners in lost wages $1,644,000, he added.

Mr. Lewis took exception to Mr. Taylor's term of "wild cat" strikes and declared the record should be cleared as to the precise connection of "wild cat" as used by Mr. Taylor.

"Perhaps Mr. Taylor has used the term loosely," he said. "I would have that 'wild cat' as accepted in the parlance of labor circles and I believe elsewhere is properly a term to be applied only to unauthorized, irresponsible walk-outs called in violation of contract agreements. As Mr. Taylor has laid the responsibility for these strikes upon the union heads, I think the inconsistency should be cleared."

Mr. Taylor rejoined that inasmuch as the strikes had been called in spite of the existence of supposedly strike-proof contracts between operators and miners, he still believed he was right in his choice of terms. He added that he believed the miners in the southwestern field did not need an increased wage scale as much as "an unimpaired opportunity to work," the lack of which "could not in justice be balanced against the present scale."

GITLOW FOUND GUILTY OF CRIMINAL ANARCHY

Former State Assemblyman Probably Will Make Appeal From Conviction

New York, Feb. 5. — Benjamin Gitlow, former Bronx assemblyman, was found guilty of criminal anarchy by a jury in the criminal branch of the state supreme court here this afternoon. The jury was out two and one-half hours. Gitlow was remanded to jail until February 11 for sentence. The law provides a maximum penalty of from five to ten years in state prison. He was indicted with James Larkin, Irish labor agitator.

Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago, Gitlow's counsel, indicated that an appeal would be asked, taking exception to many of the "comments of the court" to the jury during the charge. Darrow objected particularly to some of the definitions of Justice Weeks, including those of the words "proletariat, bourgeoisie, manifesto, and expropriation," which recurred throughout the trial.

NO PROGRESS IN BISBEE TRIAL.

Tombstone, Arizona, Feb. 5. — When a new venire of 500 names was drawn today for jury duty in the trial of Henry E. Wotton, one of the 210 defendants accused of kidnapping in connection with the Bisbee deportations of 1917, attorneys said it was likely most of the cases never could go to trial for lack of jurors. Two venires of 300 men have been exhausted.

is now receiving from all parties concerned in the securing of a continuous supply of coal.

Barges are approaching the power house tonight, he said, with an amount of coal "that will make our coal situation tomorrow improved as compared with this morning."

The Interborough Rapid Transit company, operating subway and elevated lines in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, has been reduced to a three day supply of fuel, Mr. Nixon said, while the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company was in little better condition.

The New York Edison company, which furnishes lights for the city's streets and residences and also supplies power to many industrial concerns, was reported to have a two week's supply on hand. Mr. Nixon intimated the company might be asked to lend a part of its reserve to the traction lines, provided a possibility of paying it back in time could be shown.

Three Fatalities in Jersey.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 5. — Three fatalities were due to the storm in this vicinity today. Father Francis, head of the Franciscan Monastery at Butler, and known to the order throughout the United States, died of exhaustion returning from a trip to New York. George W. Devoe sr., retired manufacturer of this city, and Mrs. M. A. Diller of Butler, dropped dead while removing snow from sidewalks.

70% OF MEMBERS OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY ALIENS

I. W. W. and Communists Same as Socialists, Expert Testifies

DEFENSE SOON TO OPEN

Trial Adjourns Until Next Tuesday, When Prosecution Expects to Finish Case

Albany, Feb. 5. — Peter W. Collins of Boston, a Knights of Columbus worker, was recalled to the stand at today's session of the trial of the five suspended Socialist assemblymen before the assembly judiciary committee, to support a claim by the prosecution that the Socialist party was dominated by aliens. This claim was the basis of a charge that Socialist public officials were controlled by dues-paying agents through resignations filed by candidates with their party organizations after they had been nominated. Earlier in the trial Mayor George R. Lunn of Schenectady had testified that prior to being expelled from the Socialist party he once had signed such a resignation.

When adjournment was taken until next Tuesday, the prosecution at the end of the third week had virtually closed its case.

Collins Day's Only Witness.

Mr. Collins, who previously had qualified as an expert on labor and Socialism, was the day's only witness. Having made the "conservative" estimate that at least 70 per cent. of Socialist party members were aliens—a recent contention, he added, as about 1910, Morris Hillquit, chief defense counsel in the present proceedings, had asserted 70 per cent. were native Americans—Mr. Collins said that through the resignation clause in the party constitution "the Socialist party is actually a government within a government, determining how its membership shall act in public places."

He also quoted Mr. Hillquit as declaring publicly that "99 per cent. of all Socialists who know what Socialism is are atheists or agnostics, but we cannot go before the public with that declaration."

Asked by Chairman Martin to differentiate between Communists, Industrial Workers of the World, Left Wing radicals, radical Socialists, "and I guess Socialists," Mr. Collins quoted Victor L. Berger as saying there were many roads to Socialism but "only one variety of Socialism."

Scientific System of Deception.

"They have these different varieties of Socialists for the purpose of getting where they can drive home Socialism and make Socialists," he continued. "It is the most scientific system of deception in the world, because it wants to make a thousand different people believe it stands for a thousand different things."

Asked if he had an official document of the Socialist party containing statistics on alien membership, Mr. Collins replied he had, but not with him. He agreed to produce it.

Testimony Tuesday of Miss Ellen B. Chivers that Assemblyman Charles Solomon, a defendant, split on the American flag in war-time in the presence of the police, which was attacked yesterday as incredible by a member of the tribunal, cropped up again today, when the defense tried to show she was not a member of the American Anti-Socialist league, as she claimed, and the prosecution contended she was a member of another organization than that referred to by the other side but bearing the same name.

Theodore Roosevelt Silent.

New York, Feb. 5. — Lieutenant Theodore Roosevelt, assemblyman from the Oyster Bay district, declined tonight to affirm or deny rumors in Albany that he would try to have the suspended Socialist assemblymen released on Monday.

GERMANY IS EMBARRASSED

Baron von Lersner's Precipitate Procedure in Leaving Paris Is Unofficially Condemned.

Berlin, Feb. 5. — The present whereabouts of the official extradition list and the accompanying covering note is a matter of speculation so far as the German foreign office is concerned. Baron von Lersner's precipitate procedure in leaving Paris after refusing to forward the list to the government has embarrassed the government. While his action has not been officially condemned, the cabinet statement nevertheless permits of the conclusion that both the cabinet and the foreign office were embarrassed by his action and therefore lost no time in releasing him from his post as head of the delegation. Up to 10 o'clock this morning, official quarters had no information as to who was in possession of the two documents. It is believed, however, that they will be handed over at Berlin by a representative of the inter-allied commission.

Dr. Wilhelm Mayer, the German charge at Paris, who has been at Munich adjusting his personal affairs, was summoned back to Berlin last night in consequence of Baron von Lersner's return.

PROTESTANT CHURCHES FORM ORGANIC UNION

Agree to Associate Themselves for Furtherance of Christian Redemption Work

Philadelphia, Feb. 5. — A plan for organic union of Protestant churches in America was adopted here today by delegates representing approximately 30 denominations, after a three days' discussion. The new movement will be under the guidance of the American Council on Organic Union of the Churches of Christ, a name officially selected by the delegates. The plan was drawn by Henry W. Jessup of New York, representing the Presbyterian church in the United States of America. Dr. William Henry Roberts, stated clerk of the Presbyterian general assembly, and chairman of the ad interim committee which considered the plan, was unanimously chosen president of the council.

The plan provides that Christian churches having the same faith in Christ shall agree to associate themselves in a body known as the United Churches of Christ in America for the furtherance of the redemption work of Christ in the world. It holds for "autonomy in purely denominational affairs," with each church retaining its creedal statements, its form of worship, and form of government. It provides for an executive body or council and a general council in which each constituent church shall be represented by an equal number of ministers and laymen, women to be included.

The specific functions of the council, it was set forth, are to harmonize and unify the work of the united churches and direct such consolidation of missionary activities, as well as of particular churches in over-churches areas, by uniting boards or churches of any two or more denominations, or otherwise.

BIG LOCOMOTIVE DROPS INTO STREET IN ALBANY

Well-Filled Passenger Cars Stick to Rails, However; Engine Crew Slightly Hurt

Albany, Feb. 5. — The scores of passengers on B. & A. train No. 16 were imperiled this afternoon when the head locomotive of a double-header jumped the track and plunged over the abutment at the southern end of the station yard and fell into Maiden lane. The iron monster, one of the mammoth Mogul type of locomotives, dragged the entire train along, but the second locomotive stuck to the rails and came to a standstill.

Engineer Charles Burrell, Fireman Clarence Hoffman and Brakeman Michael Burns, all of Rensselaer, were in the locomotive when it plunged over the abutment, but escaped with their lives.

The accident happened at 2:30 o'clock. The train, which was due to leave at 12:30, and was delayed by the storm, was just getting under way when the locomotive left the rails. Railroad officials declared that had it been going much faster the entire train might have been dragged over the abutment.

The Albany fire department responded to an emergency call and the firemen had difficulty in keeping the large crowd that quickly gathered from closing in upon the scene of the wreck. Smoke and steam were issuing from the locomotive and it was feared the boiler might explode.

The locomotive was badly smashed when it crashed upon the pavement.

FORMER GERMAN SHIPS TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION

Ships Will Be Subject to Army Needs in Emergency Under Clause in Sales Contracts

Washington, Feb. 5. — President Wilson has approved the sale of the 26 former German passenger vessels for which the shipping board recently received bids, and negotiations for the sales will proceed, Chairman Payne of the board announced tonight.

To meet objections of the war department, Mr. Payne said a clause would be inserted in the sale contracts specifically and emphatically keeping the vessels under the American flag and subject to the needs of the army in case of a national emergency.

All operations of shipping board vessels, and other shipping companies, will be invited to come to Washington the middle of next week, the chairman stated, and the sale of the vessels will be conducted on the principle of an auction. No one interest will be permitted to purchase the whole fleet of 26 vessels, Mr. Payne said, but if a sufficient price is offered for all the vessels allocated to one line, as the newly-established South American service or the proposed line to Hamburg and Southampton, a block sale will be made.

Among the bids which have been received for the ships, the chairman said, there was one of $28,000,000 for the whole fleet from the International Mercantile Marine and one from the same corporation of $4,000,000 for the giant liner Leviathan alone.

EDWARDS AND SMITH ATTACK PROHIBITION

Two Governors Declare Dry Law Restricts Personal Liberty

VIOLATES STATE RIGHTS

Sims-Daniels Controversy Also Injected in Cummings Testimonial Dinner

New York, Feb. 5. — Prohibition and the Sims-Daniels controversy were injected tonight in the testimonial dinner given here to Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National committee, at which Secretary Daniels was the principal speaker. One thousand invitations had been issued to the banquet, which was attended by prominent Democrats from all parts of the country.

The prohibition issue was brought into the proceedings by Governor Edwards of New Jersey and Smith of New York and was greeted with obviously mingled feelings by the diners. Governor Edwards was not on the official list of speakers, and was called on unexpectedly after Secretary Daniels had concluded his address. Earlier in the evening, the New Jersey executive had been given an ovation when he entered the dining hall and there was an even greater demonstration when he arose to speak.

Governor Edwards declared that a great issue had emerged from the past, "the issue of state rights and personal liberty." He asserted that that issue must be decided by the people next November.

Prohibition Law is Denounced.

"If the federal government," he continued, "may subvert the doctrines of state rights, and without a commission or mandate from the people enter upon our presidencies and into our homes with the bureaucratic system of office holders and over lordship, the theories of our constitutional government, and all the rights incident to home rule and local state government, are destroyed. Under such a system the indestructible union of states becomes a myth and we have the necessary alternative of a great super-power at Washington, imposing its will upon us in the direction of our habits, our manners, our tastes and our local customs, until nothing is left of the independent state of our fathers but the name."

"To me, the situation is a political sacrifice and I propose to carry the fight to San Francisco regardless of what any man or set may personally think, so as to bring about a popular restatement of the doctrines of state rights and popular local home rule upon which our fathers founded this government."

Governor Smith Denounces Prohibition

Governor Smith's contribution to the prohibition issue was contained in a telegram expressing his regret that sickness prevented him from being present. In his telegram he said:

"Do not forget the time-honored Democratic doctrine that the government is most effective which governs the least. This precept of Democratic faith in the recent past has been grievously and wilfully sinned against when, in the name of democracy, there was imposed upon one hundred million free people, without asking their direct consent, a restriction to their personal liberty which Prussia in her proudest days never dreamed of."

The name of Admiral Sims was introduced by John M. Riehl, the toastmaster, at the conclusion of Secretary Daniels' address. The secretary had dwelt upon the great service performed by the North Sea barrage in putting an end to the German submarine menace. Mr. Riehl, before calling upon Governor Edwards as the next speaker, said:

"Secretary Daniels spoke of the great barrage laid across the North Sea. I have just received a memorandum which shows that the only American officer who opposed the laying of that barrage was Admiral Sims."

Sims' Name Hissed.

The mention of the Admiral's name was the signal for considerable hissing and booing from various parts of the dining hall.

President Wilson was given credit by Mr. Daniels for having seen the necessity of shutting down the submarines off the sea as the only effective method of combating them, before naval staffs on either side of the water moved that end.

"You must shut up the horns in their nest," the President was quoted by Mr. Daniels as having said in a quarterdeck speech to officers of the battleship Pennsylvania early in the war. "For you can never and the submarine period if you let them out and then have to devote yourself to chasing them all over the ocean."

The barrage finally built across the North Sea, Mr. Daniels said, "was the American nation's answer to the President's counsel."

Cummings Criticizes G. O. P. Leaders.

Democratic leadership in the senate stood for unqualified ratification of the treaty of peace, Mr. Cummings declared in his address. When that became impossible," he added, "it has

PROBE CONDITIONS AT BATH SOLDIERS' HOME

Witnesses at Inquiry Tell of Poor Treatment Given Civil War Veterans

Elmira, Feb. 5. — The inquiry into the conduct and management of the state soldiers' and sailors' home at Bath, opened here this morning by Lieutenant Governor Harry C. Walker, concluded late this afternoon, so far as Elmira is concerned, with the examination of George K. Knowlton, an Erie railroad employee. His father was a home inmate, somewhat feeble minded. He disappeared, the witness testified, yet the home authorities failed to notify the family. It was found out only when a sister visited the home.

John B. Gardner, of Elmira, a Civil war veteran, told of a dinner he had in the mess hall. He said it consisted of potato soup, very thin, two small pieces of bread, and coffee. "This was the midday meal. He made no complaint about the amount of food served as he got it for nothing."

Dr. Frank W. Ross of Elmira told of attending an inmate who was a drug addict. He said the man told him it was easy to get "dope" in the institution.

Addison Wheeler, an Elmira railroad detective, said his father had $700 when he went to the home and received a pension of $30, but when he died only $76 was returned.

John W. Dimore of Elmira, humane officer, told of finding Andrew Notlon, a supposed home inmate of unbound mind, living with a family named Robinson in a ramshackle house far from town. He did not know where he was, had poor clothes, was dirty and disheveled, his finger nails were like talons, and he was poorly nourished. The family was living off his pension. The witness was told by Dr. Bush, of the home, he swore, that Notlon was out on furlough and that it would be well not to say anything about it.

The only witness who commended the home and its management was Mortimer Muse of Elmira, whose father was an inmate. He talked with his father on his visits to the home and his father said things were perfect, that Colonel Morgan, the commandant, was the right man in the right place.

The inquiry will be continued at Bath tomorrow.

HOPE FOR SETTLEMENT ON R. R. WAGES TODAY

Union and Government Officials Are Optimistic—M. of W. Employees May Strike

Washington, Feb. 5. — Officials of the railroad administration and union leaders conferring here on wage demands of the railroad employees, expressed the hope tonight that another day's discussion would bring a crystallization of arguments on both sides. None would say positively that a settlement would be effected tomorrow, but all were optimistic concerning the outlook.

Detroit, Feb. 5. — Little hope of a satisfactory adjustment with railroad administration officials of wage demands which would avert a strike of 300,000 members of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, was expressed tonight by Grand officers of the organization in conference here.

The conference, called for the announced purpose of ordering a strike if wage increases averaging 40 per cent. are not granted, opened this afternoon. It will continue, it was indicated, until definite announcement is forthcoming from the Washington conference between Director General Hines and representatives of the various railroad brotherhoods.

stood for such reservations as would preserve the spirit of the document and make its resubmission unnecessary."

"If Republican leadership," he continued, "blind to overwhelming necessity for an honorable and speedy peace, drives this issue ultimately to the arena of politics, the Democratic party will unflinchingly take up the gauge of battle. Upon that issue we shall have the support of the moral and spiritual forces of the nation. We shall have the support of the churches of the land. We shall have the support of the business interests which are now suffering from the delay in the restoration of the peace of the world. We shall have the support of the laboring men of America, who do not want to be driven again into war, and we shall have the support of the women of the United States."

Among the prominent Democrats who were seated at the speakers' table were Charles E. Alexander, vice president of the National Democratic club; Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt; Miss Elizabeth Bass, chairman of the Women's bureau of the National Democratic committee; William W. Taylor, chairman of the Democratic State committee; Mayor John F. Hyland, Monsignor Michael J. Lavelle, and National Committeemen Norman E. Mack, New York, and Robert F. Hendepa, New Jersey.

DEMAND FOR WAR CULPRITS "IMPOSSIBLE"

German Cabinet Unanimous in Condemning Allied Request

BERNSTORFF IS ON LIST

But Declares He Is Not Afraid to Face Trial; France and Belgium Each Ask 334 Men

Berlin, Feb. 5. — A statement issued by the government concerning the demand for the extradition of war culprits says:

"The imperial government at today's session dealt with the situation created by the extradition note and list and the refusal of Baron von Lersner to accept the document."

"The deliberations, which took place on the basis of the list which had unofficially become known, resulted in a full and unanimous agreement that the standpoint expressed by the German note recently delivered at Paris and since published, is in all circumstances, to be maintained."

"At the signing of the peace treaty, the imperial government left no doubt that compliance with the demand for extradition was impossible. This conviction, which it shares with an overwhelming majority of the German people, without distinction as to party, will guide it in any further measures and negotiations which may become necessary."

Erzberger at Cabinet Meeting.

The cabinet meeting, which lasted several hours, was attended by Matthias Erzberger, the vice premier and minister of finance, whose appearance was his first at a meeting of the ministry since he was shot in the shoulder in the recent attempt of a former cadet officer to assassinate him.

It is understood here that the direction of the German delegation in Paris has been taken over by the senior ranking German official here in the emergency created by the sudden resignation of Baron von Lersner upon his refusal to transmit the extradition list to the Berlin government.

It is learned that in addition to the names previously given, the extradition list includes the names of Friedrich von Ingenohl, Djemal Pasha, former Turkish minister of war; Rupprecht von Gipper, and Admiral von Schroeder, former commander of the naval corps. These men were demanded unanimously.

The deliberations of the cabinet tonight were wholly informal, as neither a verified list of the men wanted by the Allies nor the covering note were at its disposal.

The list received in Berlin contains approximately 900 names. Fully 80 per cent of the men are unknown even to the general public of Germany. Faulty transmission resulted in gross misspelling and the omission of initials and other marks of identification to indicate the respective persons meant, while names like Mueller and Schmidt recur a score of times. France and Belgium each demand the surrender of 334 men, England, 97, Poland 57, Rumania 41, Serbia 4, and Italy 25.

One Woman on the List.

There is one woman on the list, Frau Elsa Scheiner, who is wanted for alleged mistreatment of French women at a German concentration camp. The appearance of the name of Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, is accounted for here by his connection with Bollo Pasha, executed in France in 1918 as a traitor.

Field Marshal von Mackensen is wanted by Serbia and Rumania, and General Count Sixt von Arnim by England. The U-boat commander, Deplaerrie, is demanded by Italy, as are also Captains Valentiner and Robert Morht, who operated in the Mediterranean.

Both France and Belgium demand Field Marshal von Hindenburg, but only the former wants General Ludendorff, former first quartermaster general of the German army, and Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, former imperial chancellor. Admiral von Tirpitz is on both the Belgian and English lists.

Count von Bernstorff expressed surprise and seemed to be mildly amused. He declared he was not afraid to face trial. He added that he was ready to go if wanted and that he might put the Allies in a quandary, if they attempted to prosecute him.

FATAL PETTY QUARREL.

Strasbourg, Feb. 5. — William Champ, a farm hand, shot and dangerously wounded Mrs. Floyd Sykes and then committed suicide following a quarrel at Carthage late today over a method of heating some wood. Champ objected to her way and opened fire. He was an overseas veteran.

FORMER GOVERNOR EMBELLUA

Montpelier, Vt., Feb. 5. — Former Governor Morace F. Graham was found guilty of embezzlement of state funds while he was state auditor by a jury today. The jury was out nearly four hours.

"OVERTHROW WORLD ORDER!" CRY COMMUNISTS

Manifesto of Communist International, Seized in U. S. Department of Justice Raids, Tells "Reds" Own Story of Their Plans for World Wide Plunder.

Extracts from "Manifesto of the Communist International—Adopted by the Congress of the Communist International at Moscow, March 24, 1919, and signed by Comrades C. Rakovsky, N. Lenin, M. Zinovjev, L. Trotsky and Fritz Platten."

Alongside the dethroned dynasties of the Romanoffs, Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs, and the capitalist cliques of these lands, the rulers of France, England, Italy and the United States stand revealed in the light of unfolding events and diplomatic disclosures in their immeasurable villainess.

Spurning the half-heartedness, hypocrisy and corruption of the decadent official socialist parties we, the Communists assembled in the Third International, feel ourselves to be the direct successors of the heroic efforts and martyrdom of a long series of revolutionary generations from Babeuf to Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg. As the First International foresaw the future development and pointed the way; as the Second International gathered together and organized millions of the proletariat, so the Third International is the international of open mass-action of the revolutionary realization, the international of deeds. Socialist criticism has sufficiently stigmatized the bourgeois world order. The task of the International Communist Party is now to overthrow this order and to erect in its place the structure of the socialist world order. We urge the working men and women of all countries to unite under the Communist banner, the emblem under which the first great victories have already been won.

Proletarians of all lands! In the war against imperialist barbarity, against monarchy, against the privileged classes, against the bourgeois state and bourgeois property, against all forms and varieties of social and national oppression—UNITE!

Under the standard of the Workingmen's Councils, under the banner of the Third International, in the revolutionary struggle for power and the Dictatorship of the Proletariat, proletarians of all countries UNITE!

The revolutionary era compels the proletariat to make use of the means of battle which will concentrate its entire energies, namely, mass action, with its logical resultant, direct conflict with the governmental machinery in open combat. All other methods, such as revolutionary use of bourgeois parliamentarism, will be of only secondary significance.

The indispensable condition for successful struggle is separation not only from the direct servants of Capitalism and enemies of the communist revolution, in which role the Social Democrats of the Right appear, but also from the Party of the Center (Kautskians), who desert the proletariat at the critical moment in order to come to terms with its open antagonists.

The growth of the revolutionary movement in all lands, the dangers of suppression of this revolution through the coalition of capitalist states, the attempts of the Socialist betrayers to unite with one another (the formation of the Yellow "International" at Bern), and to give their services to the Wilsonian League; finally, the absolute necessity for co-ordination of proletarian actions—all these demand the formation of a real revolutionary and real proletarian Communist International. This International, which subordinates the so-called national interests to the interests of the international revolution, will personally the mutual help of the proletariat of the different countries, for without economic and other mutual helplessness the proletariat will not be able to organize the new society.

Incalculable are the sacrifices of the working class. Their best—Liebknecht, Rosa Luxemburg—they have lost. Against this the proletariat must defend itself, defend at any price. The Communist International calls the entire world proletariat to this final struggle.

DOWN WITH THE IMPERIAL CONSPIRACY OF CAPITAL!
LONG LIVE THE INTERNATIONAL REPUBLIC OF THE PROLETARIAN COUNCILS!

ROOSEVELT INTRODUCES HIS FIRST BILL IN LEGISLATURE

Albany, Feb. 4.—Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, assemblyman from Nassau county, introduced his first measure in the legislature today. The bill, prepared by the City club of New York, and introduced in the senate by Alvan W. Burlingame of Kings, would empower stockholders of other than moneyed corporations, to elect employees to their boards of directors. The measure, which is entirely permissive in character, is designed to allow corporations to experiment in giving direct and official representation to their employees.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS' ELECTION

MISS KNOWLES SAYS SHE DIDN'T KNOW SPIKER WAS MARRIED MAN

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 5.—Miss Emily Knowles, who came here a few days ago from England with her child, of which Lieut. Perley R. Spiker of Baltimore is the father, made a statement today regarding their acquaintance at an English aviation camp.

"I thought Perley Spiker was a single man while we kept company with each other," said Miss Knowles. "I expected he would marry me up to the day before he left for the United States. Then he told me that he had a wife and child awaiting him at home."

Earlier in the day, Miss Knowles had said that she had not learned that Spiker was married until she reached the United States, but later she volunteered the statement quoted.

A Steel House.

A steel house has attracted a good deal of attention at the "Own Your Home" show in New York city. Made of plates of steel, the little four-roomed house is practically a large steel box, which the inventors claim will prove absolutely wind and weather proof and, owing to an airtight space between the walls, both cooler in summer and warmer in winter. Externally, it looks like a concrete house, with a neat red roof, and practically it can be taken down and set up again in a conveniently portable fashion. If four rooms are not enough, one may buy more steel plates and enlarge the dwelling. Thus American domesticity moves onward from the log cabin to the steel house.

The teacher had spent twenty minutes impressing on her pupils the correct pronunciation of the word "rase." The following morning she wanted to find out if the children remembered, so she turned to one little boy suddenly and demanded: "What do you see on the mantelpiece at home, Jackie?" "Father's feet, miss!" came the prompt reply.

STOCK MARKET UNDER INCESSANT PRESSURE

Foreign Exchange Situation Shows Moderate Improvement—Stocks 1 to 3 Points Lower

New York, Feb. 5.—Although the foreign exchange situation as applied to London and Paris showed moderate improvement today, the stock market continued under incessant pressure, then renewed selling for both accounts.

The recovery in international credits was nullified as a market factor by greater firmness of money, call loans advancing from the high renewal rate of 17 per cent to 20, with stronger tendencies for bank acceptances and commercial paper.

Many stocks, including United States Steel, which fell to a fraction under par, were lower by 1 to 3 points from yesterday's extreme reaction, losses applying in almost equal measure to high-grade and minor issues.

Rails gave promise of betterment at the outset, but yielded later when advices from Washington indicated that certain objectionable features of the railway bill now pending would probably be adopted.

Industrials, motors and oils rallied slightly toward the end on short covering, but in no instance of importance was the net result favorable to the constructive side, shipments contributing to the weak tone at the close.

Sales amounted to 1,275,000 shares. In connection with the anomalous exchange situation, there was much discussion and no little satisfaction in financial circles at the effect already produced in the important commodity markets. It is generally agreed that further attrition of prices for cereals, provisions and cotton offer the best and safest cure for adjustment of international credits.

New low prices were made by Liberty and Victory issues despite Comptroller William's statement instructing bank examiners not to mark down prices of those securities held by national institutions. International bonds were lower, also the general domestic list. Sales, par value, aggregated $18,750,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Pays to Be Straight.

There's a satisfaction in living up to your obligations. Only the man who conscientiously meets his bills can look the world in the face without either feeling shame or acting the lie. It makes a fellow step with a firmer tread when he knows that he has done his best and that no one can call him a slacker or point toward him the finger of scorn. Sometimes he may feel burdened by this constant living up to ideals when others don't, but the load will soon become one of satisfaction as conscience declares approval. You can't do better than live up to your sense of obligation.—Grit.

Learning.

Learning taketh away the wildness and barbarism and fierceness of men's minds, though a little superficial learning doth rather work a contrary effect. It taketh away all levity, temerity, and insolency by copious suggestions of all doubts and difficulties, and acquainting the mind to balance reasons on both sides, and to turn back the first offers and conceits of the kind, and to accept nothing but the examined and tried.—Bacon.

Samuel Goldwyn Presents
MABEL NORMAND
in "JINX"
by Shannon Fife
Directed by
VICTOR SCHERTZINGER

Jinx made one fatal mistake —
She bit off more than she could chew!

Her heart was in the right place, but her feet got mixed up in the scenery and that killed Hogarth's chances of selling the circus.

The wild man escaped and put the crowd in a panic — Jinx fled in her dance costume, all dressed up and no place to go — the monkeys acted like the very Voronoff, and nobody yet knows what happened to the elephants.

Poor Mabel Normand! Jinx of the circus, but queen of comedy! She couldn't even sling wheat cakes correctly, but the kids loved her and the wild man married her, and they were happy ever afterward!

Go see JINX and take the children with you, and if you haven't got any children borrow some for Jinx and square some of your sins!

WORCESTER WEEKLY.

Goodly Attendance at Evangelist Services Here This Week.

Worcester, Feb. 5. — A goodly number are attending the evangelistic services which are being held every evening in the Methodist church. The evangelist, H. J. Magonigal, though totally blind, is an excellent song leader as well as being an able preacher. Cotage prayer meetings are being held in various districts each morning. Sunday at 3 o'clock there will be a meeting for women at the Methodist church and one for men at the Baptist church.

Caroline F. Bissell.

Caroline F. Bissell was born at Hartwick, Otsego county, January 22, 1853, and died at her home in Worcester January 29, 1920, at the ripe age of 67 years. She was married to Charles H. Bissell in 1882. They began their married life at Westford, where he died in March, 1914. Since that time most of her life was spent in this village, where she was faithfully and lovingly cared for by her devoted daughters.

She was the last of her family and lived to be the oldest. She is survived by four children, one son, Frank C., of Miami, Fla., Estell M., of Birmingham, Mrs. Fannie L. Winnie and Mrs. Nellie C. Herdman of this place; also by three grandsons and seven great grandchildren.

At the time of her death she was a member of the Presbyterian church here, having united at Westford over sixty years ago. Her life was passed largely in her home duties, where she served as only a devoted wife and mother can. She always manifested great interest in the affairs of the day as was evidenced by her recent work for the Red Cross.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. from her late home with her pastor, Rev. W. D. Jones, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. L. Herrick of the Baptist church. Those attending from out of town were Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Gus Dewar, Mrs. Marcella Muller and Miss Mary Bissell of Oneonta.

Flu Epidemic Here.

Among those who are suffering with influenza are two of our high school teachers, Miss Enid Jones and Miss Mina Davies; also Miss Loretta Burke, a nurse at the Central hotel.

Increasing Interest in Revival.

The revival meetings being conducted by Adjutant Samuel A. Hewitt at the Salvation Army hall, are increasing in attendance nightly. The old time gospel is being presented in the old time way with old time power. Many are being revived. Additional help is expected from New York soon. This is part of a nation-wide revival to bring souls to Christ and double the membership of the Salvation Army so as to meet the ever-increasing calls being made on the organization for workers.

EVANGELIST STIRS OTEGO.

Second Week Closes With Interest and Attendance Growing.

Otego, Feb. 5.—The second week of the evangelistic meetings closed today with the interest steadily rising and the attendance on the increase. Evangelist Lewis preached some very pointed sermons and also showed the Christian the responsibility which rests upon him to live an earnest, consistent life of service.

Friday night will be another treat, as the "Boosters" have the introductory part of the service. The evangelist will speak on "Help and Hindrances."

A special chart lecture on the dispensations, which gives an outline of the entire Bible, will be given on Saturday night. This message is worth going miles to hear and all should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this lecture, which is full of inspiration and biblical instruction.

Sunday will be the concluding day. At the morning service the message will be from Luke 16:1-2, when the evangelist will give one of his strongest sermons. In the evening the subject will be "The Great Question."

HAMDEN BOY DIES IN NEW YORK.

Bruce Chambers Victim of Influenza—Terry Clove Woman Claimed.

Hamden, Feb. 5. — Bruce Chambers, a popular Hamden boy, who upon returning from service overseas took a business position in New York, died of pneumonia in that city Sunday and his body was brought here for burial accompanied by two of his friends, Howard Leal and R. R. Harkness, both formerly of Delhi, now of New York. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. J. Mrs. J. W. Eckert Claimed.

Mrs. Cora Etta Eckert, wife of J. W. Eckert of Terry Clove, town of Hamden, died of pneumonia, following influenza and her funeral was held Thursday from the home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. E. IF FARMERS SHOULD STRIKE.

There is a farm journal published at Des Moines, Iowa, which in a recent issue gives not merely its own but the views of agriculturists the country over regarding the present industrial unrest, and how it affects the farmer and his family. While the article referred to will not meet with universal approval in all its features, premises and conclusions, it at least will be read with interest, showing as it does that all the argument is not on one side, and that the tiller of the soil has in fact a great deal to say for himself.

"The farmers keep their heads," says "Successful Farming," when all others fly off the track. We ask city workers to ponder a moment what might happen if the farmers should do what the workers are doing—demanding shorter hours and higher pay. The farmers are their own bosses, so they would not have to quarrel with anybody. They could hold out on strike until they got good and ready, for they can feed themselves.

"You working city fellows, suppose for a moment that the farmers adopted the eight-hour day. It would cut down production at least half. Suppose they also set a price on their labor and products based on an eight-hour basic scale. Where would you get your food? Only the rich could buy it at all, for the price would be prohibitive to men on strike. If the cost of living is too high now, how will increased cost of production bring prices down? You live now because the farmers have gone on producing, working nearer sixteen hours a day than eight hours. You can buy food because the farmers have not gone on strike, have not ceased to produce, have not cornered the market and said 'we demand so much for our products or we won't work.'

"If you city workers expect the farmers to go on feeding you at the old price you have got to get back to work at the old wage and make it possible for the farmer to buy cheaper so he can produce cheaper. This is not a one-sided game. It takes two to play it and if you city fellows quit, don't get sore if you go hungry soon. Either the farmers must do as you are doing, shorten the hours and demand higher pay, or else you must lengthen the hours and produce more without more pay.

"The farmers have been patient with you. When they lose their patience, look out. You have already taken their help. If they quit, too, who is going to feed you? What city workers have in common with farmers is not so much political as economic. What are you going to do about it?"

HEARING AT ALBANY.

On Proposal to Repeal State Daylight Saving Law.

There will be a hearing at the rooms of the assembly ways and means committee at the state capitol in Albany on Wednesday, February 11, at 2 p. m., upon the measure recently introduced to repeal the state daylight saving law to harmonize with the action of congress which has repealed the federal act.

The farmers of the nation are deeply interested in the proposal and the state grange and many subordinate granges have passed resolutions urging that the state law be repealed.

Organizations have been perfected in many of the cities and especially in New York city to fight to keep the law on the statute book. It is believed that the hearing will be largely attended by both sides and that an interesting discussion will follow. The opponents of the measure are expected to make a strong fight for its repeal.

The Potato Market in Worcester.

During the past week the bottom has fallen out of the high potato market in this village. After reaching the high point of $2.75 per bushel, the price has declined in bounds until first grade potatoes are bringing but $1.75 per bushel. One reason for the decline is the warmer weather of the past few days. Many farmers took advantage of the high price and hundreds of bushels were received at the local warehouses. It is even said some producers have sold their seed stock to a great extent. On the other hand there are several large growers who steadfastly held out for the $2.00 mark. A number of the latter class have in their cellars crops averaging from 400 to 1,000 bushels.

We are informed that potatoes reached the $2.25 per bushel mark last week at East Worcester. This is the highest price ever paid in this section of the state. — [Worcester Times.]

Doesn't Like 'Em 'Floppin'.

Avery Goodman of Portlandville was in Oneonta yesterday, blowing in at 3 p. m. on the heels of the big snow. "It's some tough going," said Avery, "but I noticed one thing that's some improvement. The fellers and gals for the first time this winter, had their Aired's buttoned up tight round the ankles. I never did like 'em floppin'."

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS.

Kept His Skirts Clean.

If, after such a plain and unimpeachable announcement on his part Massachusetts Republicans send a solid Coolidge delegation to Chicago no one will be able to say that the governor used his position in any way whatsoever to have such a delegation elected or neglected in the slightest degree his duties as governor while those delegates were being chosen. — [Lawrence Telegram.]

A Great Tragedy of the War.

One of the greatest tragedies of the war, reported from Siberia by the Red Cross, is the death of some 375,000 of the 500,000 Austrian prisoners there from typhus and smallpox. In 1918 there was a carefully-organized panic over the alleged menace of the German and Austrian prisoners. In fact, the German prisoners were few and the Austrian prisoners were harmless; their tragic fate will stir compassion centuries hence. — [Springfield Republican.]

The Starveling Churches.

The typical rural village with its half-dozen starveling churches could to advantage sell five of them, reserve the best building for union services and pay one clergyman at least a brick-layer's wages. As a town institution of dignity and power, the community church might be made so fine an institution that the relatively trifling material loss in needless buildings would never be seriously felt. — [New York World.]

The Details.

An illuminating phrase was dropped by Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes yesterday in the course of her examination in the Gilroy case. She could not remember much that was asked; and in particular she could not recall whether she had signed a check for $345 to pay for printing "The Revolutionary Age." By way of explanation she added: "I carry few details in my head. I remember ideals and principles."

A wealth of sad and painful truth resides in this chance boast. Not only Mrs. Stokes, but many parlor radicals suffer from this same malady. The professed ideals of Lenin and Trotsky, for example, they carry in their heads. Such details as that communism in factories doesn't work and that there never was less free speech anywhere than under Bolshevism in Russia, and that communism, socially speaking, means not more freedom but an unspeakably complicated and elaborate system of petty regulation—such details as these no worshipper of the Soviet carries in his or her head. — [New York Tribune.]

Unpleasant Rumor Laid at Rest.

A committee representing the association of coffin manufacturers having notified the war department that it disapproves of the return of the American soldier dead to this country, an unpleasant rumor of interested agitation for such return should be laid at rest. — [Springfield Republican]

Down With Bolshevism.

There can be no compromise with Bolshevism. The cause of liberty requires that Americans shall fight Bolshevism with just as much energy as they fought Prussianism. Let other nations succumb, in ignorance or cowardice, to the threats and propaganda of Bolshevism. The United States will never yield an inch. Every American who advocates Bolshevism is a traitor to his country. The hour is approaching when he will either quit his treason or suffer the penalty of treason. It took some time for Americans to distinguish between friends and enemies in the war against Germany, and real Americans from traitorous agents. It may take some time to distinguish Bolshevism. But the distinction will be made, and the traitors will be dealt with according to their deserts. — [Washington Post.]

When Paper is Not Conserved.

Publishers in the United States are loyally doing their share to relieve the shortage in print paper. In December they used 2,565 tons less than in November. Production in the same period increased 21,746 tons over November.

If the publicity bureau maintained in practically every one of the government bureaus at Washington were to try as sincerely as private printers to conserve the supply of paper the shortage would be speedily overcome. — [Albany Argus]

TO RESUME HIGHWAY WORK

LABOR HEREABOUTS DONE BY NO MEANS A COMPLETE LOSS

Believed That Tractors with Road Machines Will Be Able to Re-open Otego and Colliers State Roads, Despite the Heavy Snowfall.

It is expected that work will be resumed this morning on the Otego and Colliers state roads in an effort to re-open them for motor car traffic and it is believed that if they can be gone over before the last fall becomes packed that it will be possible to make the roads passable and perhaps more level and smooth for motor vehicles. The fact that much of the snow in previous storms has been pushed to the sides of the highway will make the present task much easier and in any event will assure the opening of the roads at an earlier date than would have been possible had this work not been done.

The storm of yesterday precluded any work for the day and will prevent reaching the Davenport road for several days at least, as it is considered the wise course to continue the work on roads which had previously been given attention. It is not unlikely that some shoveling will have to be done, it being quite probable that more sizable drifts will be found after yesterday's storm.

The Limb tractor will be used on the Otego road with the same force in charge as before. If it is found impossible for Superintendent Bull of the city street department to leave the work here, it is hoped that another force can be secured. It may be found advisable to rely upon teams for the motive power upon this section. The task will not be beyond their power, as it is believed two teams will be found sufficient to haul the road machine and push the snow in large part from the center of the roadway.

The fact is that in all undertakings of this kind some experience is necessary in order to learn how to do the work most economically and expeditiously and the undertaking of the present is not without its benefits for the future as well as the present. There is little doubt that an organized effort will be made another winter to keep open all of the main macadam roads leading from the city. If state aid for the purpose is not assured, then the town boards along the highways will, it is confidently believed, set aside a definite amount in their budget for the purpose.

FAVOR RETURN OF RAILROADS.

Master of State Grange Has Something to Say About Daylight Saving.

That the farmers favor government ownership of the railroads has been one of the arguments in Washington for the nationalization of the lines. At the convention of the State grange in Rochester this week, however, a convention attended by many Otsego county delegates, F. J. Lowell, the state master, urged in his annual address that the roads be restored to private ownership, and it is expected that the grange will adopt resolutions to that effect.

Commenting on government ownership, Mr. Lowell said: "Much is being said these days about this important matter and some have been bold enough to state that they speak for the grange, without any authority for so doing. I trust you will declare your convictions on this important issue in such language that it cannot be misunderstood, and, so far as the New York State grange is able, make it clear that we are for giving individual effort a fair show and also that we still believe competition is necessary to develop efficient service."

Mr. Lowell referred to the condition of the organization, saying, "I think that every one of us can well take pride in the success attained in the past year." He then presented a summary of the activities in which the organization had engaged in 1919.

We had something to say about the so-called 'Daylight Saving law,' he said. "We must be active in Albany on this same subject. We have no objection to city laborers beginning work any time they wish, but we want them to let the good Lord's time alone. It is almost inconceivable that anyone would want others to bear loss and discomfort along with decreased food supply, simply for

We Can Make Our Own Potato Flour

(National Crop Improvement Service)

In order to give an idea as to the amount of potato flour which should be used in our country, it may be said that there are more than twenty-five billion pounds of wheat flour milled annually in the United States. One per cent of potato flour could be absorbed to great advantage.

In normal times we could use 5 per cent of potato flour with our wheat to good advantage.

In the process of manufacture potatoes are first passed through a washer in which the whole potatoes are padded around, and it is surprising how clean they are when they are lifted by the last set of paddles out of the rinsing water into the hopper of the elevator which carries them to the storage bin above the cooker. From the bin they are dropped into the steam cooker as needed, which on an average is about 800 pounds at a time.

From the steam cooker the potatoes are passed through a machine which has two immense hollow rollers side by side, which take on a coating of the previously steamed cooked potatoes.

pleasure, if the evidence was not before them.

"The grange can feel proud of its work in helping on the great cause of temperance. When our founders declared for temperance they little thought how soon their work would be crowned with success, like the plague of slavery, it has gone and may it be forever. Let us keep the white flag of purity next to the Stars and Stripes."

"The question of a federation with labor," he said, "brought up by an invitation from Samuel Gompers, was settled by a polite refusal. Very few can see why we should help labor get better pay, shorter hours and cheaper food."

Epimre Milking Machines

The Empire milking machine, having passed the experimental stage, stands the test, is becoming world-wide known, and used by most of the best dairymen in the country.

Our milker, pulsator, and test cups are made of special non-rusting, non-corrosive metal. All working parts in our pulsator can be renewed for $2.50.

Our double cylinder pump reduces the speed on pump and engine one-half, thus reducing wear and tear on both pump and engine, also reducing the amount of gasoline used. This for a term of three to five years would make a big payment on the purchase price of your outfit.

We have a few single cylinder pumps on hand that we can sell at one-half price.

You make no mistake when you purchase an Empire. Our six years' experience selling milkers, together with a good supply of repairs on hand, enables us to guarantee quick and efficient service.

ROUSING MEETING OF F. O. E.

Commissioner Walsh of Elmira Present in Interest of the Order.

Oneonta aerie, No. 1260, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a rousing meeting in their rooms last night, at which time Election Commissioner Thomas Grant Welsh of Elmira was present, representing the Grand Worthy President of the order in the interest of the new organization movement, which has been started in all the aeries in America. This new drive is an aggressive move for members and Oneonta aerie has joined the movement and reduced the initiation fee to $5.00 in an effort to get 100 new members. Mr. Welsh is vice president of the state aerie and has charge of the organization department. He is an orator of ability and the members were much impressed with his advice and logic. The Eagles' fraternity has a membership of 400,000 and assets of $14,000,000, and is one of the most prosperous fraternities in America. Oneonta aerie has a fine set of officers and a fine membership and is in sound financial condition, and no doubt will gain their allotment of members.

THURSDAY'S BIG SNOWFALL

Record of Winter Broken by Storm Yesterday — Ten to Twelve Inches of Snow Reported in Oneonta—Condition Not Local but General—How Trains On All Railways Suffered From the Storm.

Those who arose a little before sunrise in Oneonta yesterday morning, as a fairly representative quota of citizens are understood to have done, were doubtless surprised to discover that, just a little earlier, the weather conditions, which on Wednesday were so favorable, had materially changed and that there were approximately four more inches of snow in evidence as a sort of top-dressing on streets, walks and lawns already carpeted. If energetic, as Oneontans proverbially are, they no doubt proceeded at once to clear the walks, only to find an hour or so later that they were again covered by as great a depth as before; and a second cleaning didn't help matters much. By noon the new snow was variously reported as being from eight to ten inches in depth, and at 3 last evening it was a conservative estimate which fixed its depth at one foot. Whether there was further addition during the night, readers of The Star can judge for themselves this morning.

So great a snowfall in one day, and in fact it was by far the greatest of any day of the present season, naturally occasioned inconvenience, alike to pedestrians, to those using the highways and to others who had occasion to journey on the railways. Though the Otsego and Colliers roads were opened Wednesday for general traffic, they were snowed up again yesterday. Today, however, as elsewhere noted, energetic efforts will be made to open them again. The hill roads are largely out of commission, though a few men whose business was imperative managed to get through with cutters by great effort, and in general dairymen reached the stations with milk.

The trolley road had perhaps as little trouble as any of the rail lines reaching Oneonta. The northern end of the road was open all day, save for an hour's delay caused by a derailment near Halsey's, and all the through cars reached Oneonta during the day. In fact the snowfall on the upper end of the line does not appear to have been as great as south of Richfield. The city line was practically on time throughout the day, the track being cleared by the sweeper; but the Normal line was out of commission after noon, on account of the sweeper being unable to clear the heavy snow along the rails. A heavy plow was accordingly summoned and reached this city last evening; and it is expected to have the Normal cars operating this morning.

The morning trains on the Delaware and Hudson were each about an hour late, but the 3:45 p. m. train from Binghamton was practically on time. The evening trains from Albany were both late. The express did not reach this city until 9 p. m. and the local at 9:35. A part, however, of the delay was caused by an accident to a West Shore train in Albany, of which further account is given elsewhere. As a result of this delay to the express, several of the actors in "The Better Ole," which was given at the Oneonta theatre, were delayed in reaching this city; and the performance did not begin until about 9:20 o'clock. Trains on the Cooperstown and Cherry Valley branches are reported to have been practically on time.

On the Ulster and Delaware the morning train arrived in Oneonta on time, but the evening train was about three-quarters of an hour late.

While energetic efforts were made yesterday by many property owners to clear the sidewalks in front of their premises, the continuous snowfall much delayed the work, which no doubt all will endeavor to complete today. The greatest difficulty was experienced in front of vacant lots, the owners of which do not reside in the city, and it may be necessary for the city authorities to do the work and assess the cost against the property.

THE EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA

State Health Department Sends Out Bulletin On How to Avoid and What to Do if You Have It.

Hermann M. Biggs, the state commissioner for the department of health, has sent out a bulletin to the press regarding the recurrence of the epidemic of influenza, which a year ago was so serious throughout the country. It is a document of value alike to those who wish to avoid influenza and its distressing sequelae, to those who have it, and to those who are caring for others ill of the disease. It is, says Dr. Biggs, a highly infectious disease of unknown origin, spread by dissemination of discharges from the nose and throat, chiefly through coughing and sneezing, and through physical contact between the sick and the well. One attack of true influenza renders most persons immune from a second attack for an indefinite period.

How to Avoid It.

Keep as far as possible from those who are coughing and sneezing unguardedly.

Do not come in contact unnecessarily with those who may have the disease.

When influenza is prevailing, avoid crowds.

Do not use drinking or eating utensils used by others unless they have been washed in boiling water.

Keep yourself in good condition by living and sleeping in rooms which are comfortably warm, but well ventilated.

If You Have It

Call a physician. Go to bed immediately in a warm and well ventilated room. If the services of a physician can not be immediately secured, take a laxative (tablespoonful of castor oil for an adult), and adhere to a liquid diet.

Uncomplicated cases recover in a few days. If you would avoid complications, stay in bed at least three days after you feel perfectly well.

For the protection of others cover your face when coughing or sneezing.

If You Are Caring for a Patient.

If there is a catarrhal discharge, see that it is received upon handkerchiefs and these promptly placed in water and boiled, or better still, furnish pieces of soft cloth which can be burned. Paper bags may be used temporarily to collect soiled cloths.

Wash your hands with soap and water immediately after handling the patient or anything soiled with discharges.

Avoid, if possible, close proximity to the patient when he is coughing or sneezing.

If more than one patient is being cared for in the same room, remove them as far as possible from each other or separate their beds by hanging sheets or placing screens between them.

While caring for patients avoid contact or association with other susceptible members of the household so far as possible.

Maintain good ventilation.

Crawford Adams Tonight.

The many patrons of the Oneonta Musical and Lecture course, who in other years have heartily enjoyed the entertainments given by that talented violinist, Crawford Adams, and his company, will be pleased to know that he will again appear in this city tonight. Mr. Adams is an artist of exceptional talent and versatility, with an amazing repertoire at his command and from which he draws at will and apparently spontaneously. As will be seen from a notice which appears elsewhere, the reserved seat sale will begin at 8 a. m. today at the Corner Bookstore.

Dr. Brownell Recovers.

Dr. A. H. Brownell, who has been indisposed for several days, is much improved and will care for office calls commencing today.

MEETS UNKNOWN DEATH

ITALIAN WATER TENDER'S BODY FOUND IN ASH PIT AFTER FOUR HOUR SEARCH

Gillo Nicodemio Is Survived by Wife and Five Children, Who, It Is Understood, Are On Their Way to This Country — Had Worked for Railroad Company Three Years—Manner in Which He Met Death Unknown.

Nicoreno Diello, as he is known on the books of the Delaware & Hudson company and who is also known among Italians of this city as Gillo Nicodemio, age 47 years, was killed on the ash pit of the Delaware & Hudson company yesterday morning and the body was found under eight feet of water after a four-hour search for him. He had lived in this country for the past 15 years and is survived by a wife and five children, who, it is understood, are on their way to this country from Italy.

He had been employed by the railroad company on their ash pit for the past three years as a water tender.

Yesterday morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, he was missed by his foreman. A search was made for him on the engines on the ash pit, and through the cars and buildings in the vicinity, but to no avail. Working under the supposition that he might have fallen from an engine, workmen took ash hooks and dragged the ash pits in an effort to locate the body. After several hours' work his body was found in number two ash pit in about eight feet of water. The body was found at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning by John Ross and James Morris. It is thought that he slipped from the engine upon which he was working and was killed by the fall.

The deceased had been in this country for the past 15 years, and is survived by a wife and three children, who it is understood, are on their way to this country from Italy. They had lived in this country before; and it is understood they had gone back to Italy and that he had sent for them to come back to this country. He had been employed by the Delaware & Hudson company in this city for the past three years, roomed at 14 Susquehanna street and boarded with Sam Dragone at 7 Susquehanna street. Coroner Getman was summoned and pronounced death due to accident and ordered the body removed to the McCrum undertaking parlors.

COMING NEXT WEEK.

March's Musical Comedy Company at Oneonta Theatre.

Speaking of Harry A. March's Musical Comedy company, which comes to the Oneonta theatre all next week, the Kingston Leader says:

The Harry A. March Musical Comedy company again, on Tuesday, pleased large audiences with the Bud Fisher absurdity, "For the Love of Mike."

As the name of the play would indicate there was not much of logic or reason or plot or anything of that kind in the lay-out or in the lines, but it served very beautifully for a fine array of comedy, for some excellent song numbers, and for the appearance of some talented members of the company, and in addition the double quartette of unusually pretty, attractive and chic girls who sing the choruses.

The company as a whole is first class. The costumes are new and pretty and appropriate, the scenery is adapted to the several performances and the music is always a feature. The leads are in good hands and there are some splendid soloists included in the roster.

The chorus girls, ranging from several very petite little, doll-like girls to full sized young women, some blonde, some brunette, all pretty, all vivacious, all with good voices and dancing ability, made good with the audience each time they appeared.

On and after April 1, 1920, bricklayers, masons and plasterers will receive $74c per hour. Clarence Walling, Pres.; C. A. Hodge, Sec. adv 6t

SUCCUMBS TO INFLUENZA.

Mrs. Augusta A. Bundy, Well Known in City, Dies at Hospital.

Mrs. Augusta A. Bundy, well known in the city for years, died at the Fox Memorial hospital Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock from pneumonia, following influenza, after a short illness. Mrs. Bundy had for about three weeks been assisting at the residence of Hon. George L. Boeckes. On Wednesday she complained of not feeling well and said that she would go to her room and prepare to visit the office of her physician for consultation. When she did not leave the room for a considerable time Mrs. Boeckes went to her and then she admitted that she did not feel well enough to walk to his office. It was then decided to call a physician, but it was several hours before he could reach the house and when he did he said that Mrs. Bundy was suffering from pneumonia, doubtless following the influenza. He advised removing her to the Fox hospital, which was done. She was in a serious condition from the first and passed away yesterday as stated. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

Mrs. Bundy was the first wife of the late T. John Baker and when they were divorced she resumed her maiden name of Augusta A. Bundy. No near relatives could be located last evening. She was the daughter of the late Zachariah Bundy, long a resident of Meredith, where it is thought she may have been born. Later and for years the family resided at Davenport. Since her marriage and later divorce she has resided in Oneonta most of the time, although for a few years she made her home in Delhi. In her earlier years she did some art work and more recently had been following domestic nursing. Her age was about 64 years.

Little definite information relative to surviving relatives could be secured last evening. It is thought that a half-brother, James Bundy, survives, and his last known place of residence was Roscoe. One of the two nieces formerly making their home with her is Mrs. D. S. Miller of Reading, Pa. It is said that the other is teaching in New York city.

OLD BILL A REAL CHARACTER.

Charles Dalton in The Better 'Ole Gives Marvelous Impression.

It lacked but little of 1 o'clock this morning when the curtain dropped on "The Better 'Ole" at the Oneonta theatre and it is evidence ample of the success of Charles Dalton in the role of Old Bill, which in the opinion of many exceeds that of Mr. Coburn himself, that the audience in large part remained seated for two hours waiting for the delayed fast train from Albany to bring the company, the scenery having arrived on the morning train, but the actors, unable to secure other than day coaches on the night train from Saratoga, with a long wait at Albany, waited until later, depending upon the evening train to reach here in time. This would have arrived, despite the snow, but little late had not a wreck delayed the departure of the train from Albany.

The audience was entertained in the best possible manner by Manager Moore with pictures and orchestra selections. The audience with scarcely an exception remained until the end of the performance and were rewarded with a creditable presentation. Mr. Dalton's work was as finished as any seen in the city in many long days, while that of Messrs. Allen and Jennings as Bert and Alf, respectively, well sustained Mr. Dalton, the three characters being the major part of the show. The feminine part of the cast were not as strong—perhaps because their lines did not permit. In settings and costumes the production lacked nothing.

It cannot be otherwise than gratifying to the management when delayed presentations result to have the audiences remain so contentedly and leave so well satisfied.

BEAN SUPPER AT "Y" TONIGHT.

High School Boys' Secretary Shepherd and Mr. Fennio the Speakers.

All boy students at the High school are urged to attend the bean supper to be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 6:15. An interesting address will be given by C. M. Shepherd, state High school boys' secretary, and Mr. Fennio, religious work secretary, will also speak. Mr. Shepherd arrived in the city last evening and while here will attempt to get more young men interested in the work of the "Y." Although the bean supper tonight is especially for High school boys, any other young men of the city will be provided for. All are urged to meet in the lobby of the "Y" at 6 p. m., and the supper will be served promptly at 6:15. Tickets are 25 cents apiece.

Mr. Fennio addressed the military training company at the regular drill at the armory last evening and spoke on "Reserve Forces," taking as an illustration the battle of Antietam in the Civil war, where, if the Union commander, General McClellan, had used his reserve forces, he would have been the victor.

This noon Mr. Fennio will give a talk to the men at the D. & H. machine shop. There will be special music for the occasion and all shop men will be made welcome.

The attention of all grade school boys over 12 years of age is called to the meeting, especially for them, at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Fennio will be there and will say something that will be sure to please the boys.

SMALL PAY IN CANDY WORK

Average Wage of 53,658 Workers Less Than $500 a Year.

All is not sweet in the candy business, according to a report issued by Miss Mary Anderson, director of the woman's bureau of the United States department of labor. The average wage, for instance, is less than $500 a year.

With the advent of national prohibition there will be a large increase in the consumption of candy, the report states. In 1914 the value of the candy output in the United States was estimated at $170,000,000, of which the total payroll was $25,000,000, for 53,658 wage earners, in 2,391 factories.

GERMANY FORMS NEW POLICE

Increase in Crime Is Excuse for Foundation of Semimilitary Organization.

With the American Army in Germany—The German government is using statistics on the increase of crime in Germany since the end of the war as the basis and the excuse for formation of numerous units of security police, as they are called. They are to have a purely military interior organization, cloaked outwardly, however, as police and entrusted only with police powers.

WARNS NATION OF RED PERIL

U. S. Department of Justice Urges Americans to Guard Against Bolshevism Menace.

CALLS RED PLANS CRIMINAL

Press, Church, Schools, Labor Unions and Civic Bodies Called Upon to Teach True Purpose of Bolshevik Propaganda.

Washington—Calling for the patriotic support of all true Americans in its fight to protect their homes, religion and property from the spreading menace of Bolshevism, the United States Department of Justice has issued a warning against the insidious propaganda of the "Reds" during the new year. It reads:

"It would be extremely helpful to the cause of good government, the maintenance of law and order and the preservation of peace and happiness in our country if the people on this New Year's day would resolve to study, understand and appreciate the so-called 'Red' movement. They can counteract it most effectively by teaching its purpose through the press, the church, the schools, patriotic organizations and labor unions, all of which are within the range of its insidious attacks.

"Red" Theories Criminal. "The 'Red' movement does not mean an attitude of protest against alleged defects in our present political and economic organization of society. It does not represent the radicalism of progress. It represents a specific doctrine—namely, the introduction of dictatorship over the world by force and violence. It is not a movement of liberty-loving persons, but a distinctly criminal and dishonest movement. Lenin himself made the statement at the Third Soviet Conference, 'Among one hundred so-called Bolsheviks there is one real Bolshevik, thirty-nine criminals and sixty fools.' It advocates the destruction of all ownership in property, the destruction of all religion and belief in God. It is a movement organized against democracy and in favor of the power of the few built by force. Bolshevism, syndicalism, the Soviet Government, sabotage, etc., are only names for old theories of violence and criminality.

Russian Labor Crushed.

"Though their adherents in this country are advocating and fomenting strikes, Lenin and Trotsky forbid strikes, and trade unions are being broken up and completely subordinated, to the will of the few demagogues in control in Russia. This Bolshevik experiment on the living body of the Russian people has not proven in any sense of the word an experiment in democracy. The Bolshevik leaders frankly repudiate democratic principles as we understand them. It has been a gamble which meant for Russia, and, indeed, for the whole of humanity, enormous losses in lives as well as in material resources. The Bolsheviks have run up a colossal bill which the Russian workmen and peasants will have to pay.

"Reds" Menace America.

"Having lived at the expense of the Russian people for two years, these speculators in human lives and other people's earnings are trying to move to new fields to the east and to the west, hoping to take advantage of the economic distress and confusion of mind in which humanity finds itself after the terrific strain of five years of war.

"Its sympathizers in this country are composed chiefly of criminals, mis-taken idealists, social bigots and many unfortunate men and women suffering with varying forms of hypersthesia. They are enemies of the government, of the church and of the home and advocate principles which mean the abolition of all three of these safeguards of civilization.

Would Rob Everybody.

"Twenty million people in this country own Liberty Bonds. These 'Reds' propose to take away $830,000 people in the United States own farms and 3,838,000 more own homes, which they would forfeit; 11,000,000 odd people have savings accounts in savings banks and 18,000,000 people have deposits in our national banks, at which they aim. There are hundreds of thousands of churches and religious institutions, all of which they would abolish. In other words, 110,000,000 hard-working and saving people who own property, love liberty and worship God are asked to abandon all the ideals of religion, liberty and government, which are the outcome of the struggles of their fathers and their own development, and to place themselves, their homes, their family and their religious faith in the keeping and their property under the domination of a small group of Lenins and Trozkys.

Protection Promised.

"This department, as far as existing laws allow, intends during the coming year to keep up an unflinching, persistent, aggressive warfare against any movement, no matter how cloaked or disguised, having for its purpose either the propagation of these ideas or the excitation of sympathy for those who spread them. The movement will not be permitted to go far enough in this country to disturb our peace and well-being or create an insupportable distrust of the people's government. It will fall away before the light of popular knowledge and appreciation of its aims and purposes.

Bicycle for One-Legged Riders.

A French firm has devised a new method of adapting a bicycle to the one-legged rider. The chain is on one end attached to the sprocket, while the other end is secured to a spring from the lower frame. In this way the rider simply pushes the pedal down, and the spring draws it up again, and the pedal rotates continuously.

PUTTING THE CASE MILDLY

Condemners of Brutal Murder Could Not Be Accused of Undue Denunciation of Crime.

The example given in recent issues of the Companion of understatement of facts reminded a reader of a glaring instance of such caution in speech. One Monday morning, she says, our colored laundress came to us all agog with the gruesome particulars of the brutal murder of a little girl that had happened a few hours before. As she was the bearer of the first intelligence, I listened intently, interrupting her tale with due exclamations of horror. At last she turned to the washtub:

"Ya-as'm," she drawled, bending over steaming suds, "it suttinly was a mean thing to do—a right mean thing."

At the time that seemed to me the same of moderation, but—strangely enough—I was later to meet it exaggerated in the mother of the little victim of that mad assassin. When I paid my visit of condolence to the poor woman, she spoke at length of all the sad circumstances of the tragedy. It was when she came to sum up her conclusions that language failed. Pulling out her handkerchief, she sobbed into its neat folds:

"It was so—uncalled for!"—Yuh's Companion.

Pro Rata.

In one of the regiments the rats had become such a pest that the officers took drastic measures to get rid of them. An offer was made that to any of the boys 12 hours' liberty would be given every time they brought in a dead rat.

One day a soldier came into headquarters with a demand for five days' liberty. "Five days' liberty? Where do you get that stuff?" they howled at him. He produced a paper sack which, on being opened, showed ten young rats which he had found in one nest. The joke was on the officers; and the soldier got liberty.

TRADEMARKS PIRATED

Business Men Complain of Acts in Foreign Countries.

Appeal to State Department to Protect the Interests of Rightful Owners.

New York.—The American Manufacturers' Export association launched its fight against trademark pirates in Portugal and elsewhere by sending an appeal to the state department asking that the American ambassador to Portugal protect the interests of the rightful owners.

The patent and trademark committee of the association in the appeal pointed out that more than forty American automobile trademarks have already been pirated in Portugal.

The pirating of trademarks is not limited to any particular country, explained a statement issued by the committee, but hundreds of trademarks are appropriated throughout the world.

Recently a Brazilian concern took forty well-known trademarks belonging to American automobile and accessory manufacturers. It was stated. Similar cases of pirating were cited in Spain, Japan, Argentina and Cuba.

The motion-picture industry has also completely lost its foreign trademarks, the statement adds, owing to the practice in the industry of permitting registration by the foreign agents.

The statement pointed out that in view of the patent and trademark provisions of the peace treaty, ratification of the treaty would permit the recovery of all trademarks pirated in Portugal owing to an extension of the international trademark convention, to which this country is a party.

Red Hair Unpopular.

Red hair, however unjustly, is still associated with deceit, and, in Ireland and Scotland, with ill luck as well. In the highlands he who meets a red-haired woman when starting on a journey will be well advised, say the wise-ones, to return home and start the journey afresh; and in Ireland red-haired people are supposed to exercise the same baneful influence upon any undertaking.
